Brief Programme Details:

The students of PGDM- attended a session on 'Career Opportunities in Stock Markets' on August 13, 2019. The session was conducted by Mr. Nabaroon Chakraborty - Vice President and Business Head BSE and Mr. Suhas Worlikar, Faculty BSE Institute Ltd. Mr. Chakraborty discussed the career opportunities available in the stock markets. The focus was on the basic understanding of the stock markets and how the bonds, mutual funds, derivatives and shares are traded. He also explained the finer details about the difference between BSE and NSE. Examples of live market were given which helped the students to compare the theoretical concepts with practical industry experience.

He highlighted the importance of Share Market and explained the functioning and working of BSE. Mr. Chakraborty spoke about the relevance and significance of Stock markets and why it is essential for the students to build their career in stock markets and learn and inhibit the skills which would be beneficial for them in the long run.

Conclusion:

The students appreciated the insights provided by the speaker and gained valuable inputs. It was indeed an interactive and an effective session. The speaker gave an enriching, informative and detailed presentation on various dimensions of the stock markets where students can plan their career after the completion of their course.
