Guest Speakers, if any: Mr. Nikhil Shinde (National Institute of Securities Markets)

Brief Program Details:

The program started with Mr. Nikhil Shinde introducing himself and National Institute of Securities Market (NISM) and giving a brief overview of what is Securities Market and how it functions. He gradually shifted the focus on the shortage of working professionals in the Securities Market and the need of the hour being qualified certified professionals working in Securities Market.

He briefed the students about various career opportunities in the Securities Market and the expectations from the industry. Finally, he introduced different certification programs of NISM and discussed about its relevance and significance in undertaking these certification programs for carving a career in Securities Markets. He distributed some study material for students interested in registering for the certification programs.

Conclusion: It was an enriched experience for all the students to know about the Securities market and there was a positive feedback from everybody. The speaker too was experienced and was able to handle and solve all the queries from the students.
